

"I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these you did for me." - Matthew 25:40

For Release February 16, 2008

For more information contact
Erin Lynch, CMI, 978-749-6700

Benjamin Watson Visits Charlotte Avenue YMCA

New England Patriot, Benjamin Watson Signed Autographs to Benefit His New Foundation "One More" & the Charlotte Avenue YMCA

February 16, 2008 (Rock Hill, SC)- New England Patriot Benjamin Watson visited the Charlotte Avenue YMCA today to greet fans and sign autographs for charity. While he was there, Benjamin and his wife Kirsten presented a check to the Upper Palmetto YMCA for $10,000 from their new foundation "One More".

"One More" is a foundation set up by Benjamin and Kirsten Watson to support their desire to help the community and give back to those people and organizations in need. Benjamin and Kirsten have created this foundation to help tackle the immediate concerns and issues in society. "One More" is devoted to spreading the love and hope of Christ to one more soul by meeting real needs, promoting education and providing enrichment opportunities through charitable initiatives and partnerships.

"I am thrilled to be back in my home town to support such a worthy cause," said Benjamin Watson. "My wife Kirsten and I have been so blessed in our lives and we are fortunate to be able to give back to a community that gave so much to me. We started "One More" as a way to financially help individuals and organizations enrich themselves and their programs, as well as a way to donate our time and energy to projects that our close to our hearts."

For nearly 100 years, the Upper Palmetto YMCA has built strong kids, strong families and strong communities. Today, the tradition continues. The association serves children and adults in York, Chester and Lancaster counties and beyond.

The Upper Palmetto YMCA continually strives to meet its mission to put Christian principles into practice through programs that build a healthy spirit, mind and body for all.

For more information please contact Erin Lynch at 978-749-6700 or erin@celebritymarketing.com